

There is / There are: Easter Grammar!

1. What is There?

For ONE thing:
There is... /
it isn't...

For TWO or MORE things:
/ There are... / There aren't

2. Build Your Sentence!

1. Singular (One thing)

Affirmative (✓): There is a bunny in the basket.

Negative (X): There isn't a card under the tree.

2. Plural (Two or more)

Affirmative (✓): There are some eggs on the grass.

Negative (X): There aren't any chicks near the gate.

Quick Rules

Is / Isn't = 1 thing.

Are / Aren't = 2+ things.

Any = Use this for negative plurals (0 things).

easter eggs

easter cards

hot cross bun

chicks

basket

easter egg

chick

hot cross buns

bunny

bunnies

easter card

baskets

+

behind

next to

under

on between

in

+

places

Places: basket, grass, tree, table, garden

