

CHRISTMAS AROUND THE ENGLISH-SPEAKING WORLD!

UNITED KINGDOM

Families decorate trees and hang stockings.
Christmas Dinner is at lunchtime!
We eat roast turkey and Christmas pudding.
We love Christmas crackers—
Inside: Crackers—they pop!
Inside: a joke, paper hat, and toy!

UNITED STATES

Big, bright lights on houses!

Children leave cookies and milk for Santa.

Visit the giant Christmas tree at Rockefeller Center in New York!

AUSTRALIA

Christmas is in SUMMER!

We have barbecues or go to the beach.

Wear swimsuits and go to the beach.

Santa's sleigh is pulled by kangaroos!

Comprehension Questions

True or False?

1. In Australia, people celebrate Christmas during the winter season. ____
2. Families in the UK eat roast turkey for their Christmas meal. ____
3. In the United States, houses are decorated with big, bright lights. ____
4. Australians often go to the beach or have barbecues for Christmas. ____
5. Christmas crackers in the UK make a "pop" sound when they open. ____

Short Answer Questions

United Kingdom: What time of day do families in the UK usually have their Christmas dinner?

United States: What two things do children leave for Santa Claus on Christmas Eve?

Australia: What animals pull Santa's sleigh instead of reindeer?
